

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

Meet Harvest's Cuban Sister Church

November 6 | 6:30 PM

A small Harvest team visited Fuente de Salvacion Methodist Church in Cuba in September. Based on the team's recommendation, Harvest's Missions Team and Church Council have since decided our two churches are now "sister churches". You're invited to hear from the team about their experience in Cuba and what it means to be sister churches. Join us at the Lakewood Ranch campus for a $5 Cuban dinner. Child care will be provided. RSVP to Mike Kennedy by November 5.

Harvesters: Christmas Cruise

December 9 | 1 - 8:30 PM

The Harvesters Christmas Lights Cruise scheduled for December 9 has proved very popular. So much so that the chartered motorcoach is filled to capacity. However, we have an alternative plan! If we get enough Harvesters that sign up for this alternative, carpooling will be encouraged. Cost of boat trip is $16 per person. If you are interested in joining the rest of the Harvesters you can sign-up for the boat trip online.

MESSAGE SERIES

is ANYBODY up there? A Message Series on Prayer

Prayer. It's one of the most basic and yet most mystifying components of faith. For some, it happens as naturally as breathing. For others, it hardly ever happens because it seems so unnatural. At some point, anyone who spends time praying at all finds themselves facing doubts and questions. Join us next week as we conclude our series that explores some of the most often-asked questions.

Did you miss a week? Visit welcometoharvest.org to catch up and listen to a message that you may have missed. We hope to see you next week as we start our new series, "How Do You Measure a Life?"
